

What Goes Around Comes Around, 2005, 96 pages, Daisy de Villeneuve, 0811847241, 9780811847247, Chronicle Books, 2005

Bridget Jones and Carrie Bradshaw move over! Chick lit meets Mean Girls meets hipster graphic novel in this compelling, gossipy package by fashion world maven and celebrated artist Daisy de Villeneuve. Fresh on the (high) heels of her first book, He Said, She Said, Daisy doesn't mince words as she delves into the world of single girls, sex, dating, and the cruelty of female friendships. In a series of gossipy vignettes, What Goes Around Comes Around lets readers in on the sordid details of girlfriends who aren't really friends at all ("what they all have in common is that they are of the same type: 'Bitch'."). Each vignette is quirkily illustrated with Daisy's signature cartoon-like felt-tip ink drawings. Pushing the envelope of style and attitude, What Goes Around Comes Around is a fresh addition to every girl's bookshelf.
